

TOBY FROW

Theatre Director

Toby graduated from Oxford University and after participating on the National Theatre Studio Director's course, was Resident assistant director at the Orange Tree Theatre (1999-2000) and subsequently at the Donmar Warehouse Theatre (2000-2001). In 2003 Toby was offered an Esmée Fairbairn bursary to become Resident Director at Birmingham Rep Theatre. This June, Toby will direct CROCODILE, a new play for TV by Frank McGuinness for Sky Arts and his production of DR FAUSTUS will open at Manchester Royal Exchange in September 2010

THEATRE

- 2010 LES LIAISONS DANGEREUSES by Christopher Hampton
Salisbury Playhouse
- 2009 PRIDE & PREJUDICE adapted by Simon Reade
Bath Theatre Royal
- 2009 SPEAKING IN TONGUES by Andrew Bovell
Duke of York's Theatre produced by Sweet Pea Productions/
Blue Horizon Productions/ACT
- 2008 THE REAL THING by Tom Stoppard
Salisbury Playhouse
- 2008 SOME KIND OF BLISS by Sam Adamson
Trafalgar Studios, Brits Off Broadway Festival, New York
Time Out Critics Choice Award
- 2007 SHIP OF FOOLS by Andrew Bovell
Theatre 503
Time Out Critics Choice Award
- 2007 BOX by Sarah Woods
Site specific production for Birmingham Rep
- 2006 BEAUTIFUL THING by Jonathan Harvey
Sound Theatre
- 2005 THE PILLOWMAN by Martin McDonagh
National Theatre
Best Touring Production - Manchester Evening News Awards

Casarotto Ramsay
& Associates Limited

Waverley House
7-12 Noel Street
London W1F 8GQ

T +44 (0)20 7287 4450
F +44 (0)20 7287 9128
www.casarotto.co.uk

- 2004 SOMEONE WHO'LL WATCH OVER ME by Frank McGuinness
Northampton Theatre Royal
- 2004 THE SHOOKY by Peter Wynne - Wilson
Birmingham Rep
- 2003 CHRISTMAS CAROL by Steve Nallon
Birmingham Rep
- 2003 A VIEW FROM THE BRIDGE by Arthur Miller
Birmingham Rep and West Yorkshire Playhouse.
Nominated for TMA Award
- 2000 PEER GYNT by Henrik Ibsen
Battersea Arts Centre, as part of the JMK Festival